

THRIVAL TOOLS

on Indigenous winter survival and brilliance

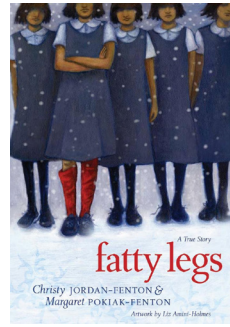

Book List

Children's Literature

Fatty Legs

by Christy Jordan-Fenton
and Margaret Pokiak Fenton (Inuvialuk)
with Artwork by Liz Amini-Holmes

The Sea in Winter

by Christine Day (Upper Skagit, Nooksack)

Those Who Run in the Sky

by Aviaq Johnston (Inuk)

The Barren Grounds

by David A. Robertson (Swampy Cree)

In My Anaana's Amautik
by Nadia Sammutok (Inuk)

Mouse Celebrates the Winter Solstice

by Terri Mack (Da'naxda'xw),
Illustrated by Bill Helin
(Tsimshian)

Fox on the Ice// Maageesees

Maskwameek Kaapit (Songs of the North Win)

by Tomson Highway (Cree), Illustrated
by Brian Deines

Adult Literature

The Seed Keeper

by Diane Wilson (Dakota)

Moon of the Crusted Snow or Medicine Walk

by Waubgeshig Rice (Anishinaabe)

Split Tooth

by Tanya Tagaq (Inuk)

Indian Horse

by Richard Wagamese (Ojibwe)

The Break

by Katherena Vermette (Red River Métis)

The Accident of Being Lost

by Leanne Betasamosake Simpson (Mississauga)

Crow Winter

by Karen McBride (Algonquin)

all Tribal affiliations are established by authors*

note on Tribal diversity: this list features authors all from subarctic, northern prairies, or eastern woodlands cultures. winter features very prominently in these regional cosmologies and lifeways due to its intensity and duration. There are many amazing southern Indigenous authors, but winter isn't as often a main theme or plot point*

List compiled by nibiwakamigkwe
from the Thrival
Tools Library
Takeover Team.